

KOPI

For people who recently have moved to Kolding

Welcome to the Municipality of Kolding

K

Kolding Kommune

Dear new citizen

Welcome to the municipality of Kolding - a nice place to live and a place where design, culture, history, nature and sports make people and companies thrive and grow.

I would like to welcome you to our municipality by inviting you free of charge to some of the cultural activities and leisure time events that we are so proud to have.

It would be a pleasure for me to show you the municipality, so please participate in one of our three annual bus-tours.

We will show you a selection of the cultural and historical peaks in the municipality, as well as some of our most extensive development-projects.

See dates and register for the bus-tour at www.kolding.dk/bustur

Enjoy!

Welcome to the municipality of Kolding

Most information can be found on the website

Our ambition, in all relations, is to render good service to everyone in all situations, whatever the need may be.

At our website www.kolding.dk you can read about our various services.

Here you will also find information about our office hours, and what to explore in your new municipality.

The website also provides access to the digital self-service solutions where you, among other things, can: Notify the authorities of a change of address, chance doctor or register your child in day care.

At www.oplevelskolding.dk you will find a lot of inspiration for things to do in Kolding in your sparetime.

Kolding Libraries

The library is a modern cultural centre – a place to meet and study and a place where social networks can start or keep growing. Join the Winterbookscafé, the Crimebookclub or one of the others readers-clubs. Meet others with an interest for music, listen and talk about the music in the Listeners-clubs. Come to the cinema, the theater or maybe an exhibition together with the others in the Culture-clubs.

Watch www.koldingbib.dk or ask at the library for information.
